

"Robinson"

get close to the ocean and animal life...

We use stable double kayaks to make our way round all the small islands around Henningsvær.

This is the home territory for seals, white-tailed eagles and many different types of birds. We go ashore on a "deserted island" and prepare a wilderness lunch over an open fire.

You will be given thorough training in how to use the kayaks and in safety procedures. Robinson is suitable for everyone!

